

Nov. 25, 1927.

Mr. Wallace Case,
Water Commissioner,
Emery, Utah.

Dear Sir;

RE: MUDDY CREEK DIST.

I have your letter of Nov. 24 and apologize for not having given earlier attention to the matter of your payment for services as water commissioner on Muddy Creek during the season just closed. I am enclosing check for $75.00 which was the agreed amount for such services and also the usual form of voucher required for these payments. I would ask you to kindly have the voucher signed and sworn to before a notary public and return to this office at your early convenience.

Yours very truly,

State Engineer.
